DIPLOMAT PROGRAM

The Diplomat Program is comprised of a select group of business professionals who are knowledgeable volunteers for the Chamber of Commerce.

Diplomats attend monthly meetings, network, assist in retaining members and attend Chamber functions such as grand openings, ribbon cuttings and open houses.

Benefits of being a Chamber Diplomat include: meeting decision-makers on a professional basis, receiving recognition throughout Rutherford County's business and professional community, career development through training events and increased business opportunities through networking events.
